Great Christmas gifts

Tupper Lake's new blacksmith Dan King, who is in the process of renovating the old Wheel Inn with his wife and children, donated an ornate hook and fireplace poker that he recently fashioned out of metal to the Next Stop! Tupper Lake train station project. The pieces were treated by Dan with linseed oil and bee's wax. Committee members will be selling chances on the prize this month as part of the fall fund raising campaign. Tickets will be available later this week at the Tupper Lake Free Press office, the chamber office, at Larkin's Junction Depot and at various other spots around town where you see the poster.

Breanna wins black belt

Breanna Savage, daughter of John and Dee Savage, recently earned her Black Belt in Karate at a ceremony held in Syracuse on October 14th. Breanna has been studying the martial arts for the past four years rising through nine various karate belt levels. To reach the final level of black belt she had to participate in an intense 16 week, five days per week training cycle which tested her physical and mental strengths as well as her knowledge of the martial arts.

Breanna was elated to be joined in celebrating this momentous occasion by her grandparents, Paul and Trudy Gaff, Jerry and Shirley Savage, her cousin Sarah Snyder, and her family and friends from the Syracuse area.

Those who do not receive a letter within the next ten days, or if you know of a classmate who has not received a letter, please contact Becky (Denis) Moeller at 359-7529 or Becky (Callaghan) Kopp at 359-7429.

Mary's Corner

Tell them today

Is there someone needing a word of cheer
Who is living with a heavy heart?
Perhaps only you have the words he needs...

Words of comfort just you can impart.

We know there are those who want to hear
Their burdens need not be endured alone.
That we will be there through thick and thin,

For this is the way that love is sown.

Be it family member, friend or neighbor,

Or a stranger met along the way,

They all could use an encouraging word;

Don't wait till later.. tell them today.

Remember God loves you!

Photographing the King

In our front page story last week about how Elvis, in the person of Joe Ramsey, took Tupper Lake by storm a week or so ago, we forgot to give credit to the man who took those great front page photos of the King. He was, of course, the mayor of Conifer, Dean Doriguzzi, who just loved the show Joe put on that evening at the Knights of Columbus hall to benefit the Piercefield Fire Department's ladies auxiliary.
