Rita Hagan celebrates 90 years
Rita Hagan (see above), of Roslindale, MA, was recently feted at a 90th birthday celebration in her honor, hosted by her family. She was born November 15, 1917 in Tupper Lake, the second child out of seven born to Juliette (Auclair) and George Chartier. She graduated from the Spadoni Academy in 1935 and was later employed at Fort Drum in Georgia and eventually ended up in Tennessee doing clerical work. In February 1944, she married First Sergeant Joseph Hagan. The couple had five children and for the past 50 years, Mrs. Hagan has resided in the same home on Conway Street in Roslindale.
