

Golfers helping hospice

Low net tourney winners

Among the 27 teams which participated in the recent Graymont tournament to benefit hospice was this one that won the first net prize. Posing from left were Assistant Pro Tim Clark, Jim Larkin, Jeff Boucher, Lois Donnelly, representing hospice, Golf Pro Brent Smith, representing the Tupper Lake Country Club, which was a co-sponsor, and George Clark.

The winners of the low gross prize in the tournament were Dave, Clarence and Scott Bell and Evan LaBarge.

Second low net

The team that finished second low net in the recent Graymont-Tupper Lake Country Club tournament to benefit hospice was comprised of (from left) Randy Amell, Jeremy Nugent, Mike Sovey, and Rick Pickering. Shown with them was hospice's Lois Donnelly and Golf Pro Brent Smith

Winners of the second place low gross (not shown) were Bob Lewis, Ron Belleville, Wayne and Mike Roberts.

Staff changes pave way for school openings

A number of appointments and personnel matters at Monday night's board of education meeting paved the way for a smooth opening of the local schools this year.

Stephanie Brockway was appointed as a long term substitute teacher to fill in for elementary school teacher Christy LaVigne, who is out on maternity leave this fall.

Kyle Fuller was named by the board as a long-term substitute for the high school intervention program for the entire school year.

L.P. Quinn's Sarah Benze was named as the school's enrichment coordinator this year.

Donna Boucher and Meredith Warwick were appointed as teacher aides at the elementary school.

Danielle Gratton and Diane Helms were both appointed as typists in the middle school office, beginning this month.

The resignation of Sheila Larkin as typist in the high school office was accepted by the board Monday. The board also accepted a letter of resignation from Darlene Selig, a teacher assistant at the high school, effective Oct. 1.

Marni Wilcox and Lorraine VanVranken were hired by the board as food service workers.

Karla Brown, Bonnie LaRose and Robin Bickford were appointed as bus monitors.

In other personnel matters, Kathy Eldridge was granted her 10-year longevity increment and Crystal Gibbs maternity leave request, effective October 31, was approved.

In the athletics department, a number of appointments were made. Ian McLearn was named as clock operator for JV football games. Dan Cook, a new math teacher, was appointed as scorekeeper/clock operator for varsity soccer games and student teacher Rebecca Regetz, will be his back-up. Dan will also be a soccer coaching volunteer.

Dupuis was approved as a football coaching volunteer and Erik Baillie, Vickie Plumley, Laurie Mitchell and Lori Staves will handle crowd control at games this fall.
